

SunbriteTV Rear IR emitter placement

Our testing has found that the placement of the emitter as illustrated above provides the most reliable emitter output from the rear window to the front IR receiver.

The fiber optic link can be tested with the SunbriteTV remote provided with the TV. Pointing the remote at the rear IR window you should be able to control the TV.

The easiest way to test is to provide an audio video program to the TV and use the 'mute' button.